Commercial Real Estate and Multi-Asset Class Expertise

Lee D. Edelson is a Partner in the New York office of Federman Steifman LLP. Mr. Edelson has extensive experience representing both institutional and non-institutional clients in a broad array of asset classes including, without limitation, multifamily, mixed-use and office buildings, industrial properties, shopping centers, retail and commercial condominiums, development sites, hotels, restaurants and commercial/retail properties.

Strategic Transactional Counseling

Having the opportunity to represent and provide guidance to various types of owners, developers, operators, investors, tenants, lenders and borrowers throughout his career, Mr. Edelson has developed significant depth and breadth of experience enabling him to identify critical issues at an early stage of each transaction, which, in turn, facilitates Mr. Edelson's ability to provide practical, efficient and cost-effective counsel to clients based upon each client's specific goals and objectives.

Areas of Concentration

Mr. Edelson's practice has a particular focus on acquisitions and sales of single-assets and/or portfolios, ground leases, retail, industrial and office leases, commercial financing transactions, construction matters and joint ventures with respect to all asset classes located in New York and throughout the United States.

Nonprofit Organization Advisory

In addition, Mr. Edelson has advised several not-for-profit organizations, including museums, synagogues and churches, with respect to corporate governance matters and has provided counsel with respect to the redevelopment of its property through joint ventures with developers and obtaining attorney general and state court approvals, where required.

Prior Experience

Prior to joining Federman Steifman LLP, Mr. Edelson was a partner at Donovan LLP.
