Overview

Mr. Jackson has extensive experience representing clients in connection with commercial finance, asset and equity disposition, and debt and equity restructuring transactions.

Mr. Jackson represents private equity firms, investment and commercial banks and other financial institutions, as well as operating companies, in connection with a broad range of debt and equity financings, including senior secured, first and second lien, unsecured and subordinated loans, debt-like preferred equity, joint venture, traditional preferred equity, and co-investment transactions. He advises clients on all aspects of the structuring, negotiation and documentation of financing and acquisition transactions, from initial commitment, through the due diligence phase, to closing, refinancing, and restructuring. He also frequently represents lenders in connection with complex intercreditor negotiations, exercising remedies, and workouts.

Mr. Jackson has deep knowledge and experience advising lenders and franchisee operating companies in connection with a wide range of franchise finance transactions.
